

Who, What, When, Where, Why, How Worksheet

Who is it for?

Vehicle Drivers

What is it for?

Windshield dashboard to give driver information based on surroundings

When will it be used?

Can be used for many applications, but would be most useful under hazardous conditions

Why does it need to exist?

Hazardous conditions can be the leading causes of car accidents

Where will it be used?

Driving in urban, suburban, and highway situations

How does it work?

Input	Ouput
dashboard appears when driver turn on car, control is given through the drivers steering wheel	Information on road conditions, hazards to come, and basic car information that is useful to the driver is displayed